

atWork Australia helps match the right person to your business atWork Australia has highly skilled and experienced teams who do the hard work of sourcing employees for you.

With extensive local market knowledge, and a broad pool of carefully screened candidates who are ready and willing to work, we ensure the right candidate is suggested to your business every time.

Not only can we save you time and resources in the recruiting and hiring of staff, as well as assisting with the placement process, but you may also be eligible for financial benefits in the form of wage subsidies.

WORK'S FOR EVERYONE

Benefits for you

Using an employment services provider gives you access to:

- Funding for a range of training courses to increase the skills of job seekers to meet your needs (e.g. computer skills, tickets and licences, certificate courses);
- Funding for tools and equipment, work clothes and uniforms;
- Assistance with specialist equipment and workplace modifications for job seekers with disability and health concerns;
- Post-placement support for you and the job seeker to help ensure a successful placement;
- Completely cost free services for all your needs.

Wage subsidies

A wage subsidy is a payment from the Australian Government that encourages businesses to employ eligible job seekers. Wage subsidies may be used to offset the costs of on-the-job training, contribute to wages or any other workforce development activities.

Wage subsidies currently available to employers include:

- Restart Programme for job seekers 50 years and over (up to $10,000)*
- Long Term Unemployed (LTU) Wage Subsidy (up to $10,000)*
- Youth Wage Subsidy for job seekers aged 25-29 years of age (up to $6,500)*
- Parents Wage Subsidy (up to $6,500)*
- Youth Bonus Wage Subsidy for job seekers 15-24 years of age (up to $10,000)*

*Terms and conditions apply.
