WORK'S FOR EVERYONE

Here at atWork Australia, we truly believe that work's for everyone. If you live with disability, injury or health condition, we can help you find a job that makes the most of your skills.

Maybe you're a fast learner or you're good with people. Perhaps you have a strong can-do attitude or a determined mindset. You could be great at multi-tasking, focused tasks or jobs that need a lot of attention to detail.

Let's find you a job that suits your strengths.

We are here for you

At atWork Australia, we've supported thousands of Australians living with disability, injury or health condition on their journey to meaningful work. We are your Job Coach, your advocate and your partner as we find you the right job with the right employer.

We are located in more than 300 locations across Australia, so chances are we're just around the corner from you. We can also meet virtually via phone or video, if you need. We are your very own employment finding team, ready to work with you, local employers and the community to help you find a meaningful and sustainable job.

A job that's right for you.

How do we help you?

We put your needs front and centre. You'll get a dedicated Job Coach. We'll listen, talk about your needs and help you identify your work and life goals.

Together, we'll create a plan to get you where you want to be

Regardless of whether you're ready to launch into a new job or need to build skills to be job ready, your plan is tailored to suit you.

It's a practical, friendly and cost-free service.

We provide a holistic service to maximise your strengths, your abilities and make a difference in your life, including:

Why register with us?

We make sure that signing up with us isn't a job in itself. We also work hard to make things as easy as possible for you throughout your job search journey.

Once we find the right job for you, we'll continue to support you for as long as you need. We are there for you whenever you need us, with the goal of supporting you to thrive in your job. Just some of the ways we can assist you include support in learning your job, negotiating with employers, support to find the best route for commuting to work and so on.

See us face-to-face or see us online

We understand that it's not always possible to come and see us in person. So, after our first face-to-face meeting, we offer the flexibility to meet virtually. It allows you to fit our appointments into your daily life.

Need to share a document with us? No problem!

You can submit your paperwork to us online, wherever you are, whenever you need to.

Getting in touch, keeping in touch

Your Job Coach is your key contact along your journey to finding work. You can also call our national contact centre, which has real people ready to assist you.

Our mission is to make your job search as simple and straightforward as possible.
